Its a profound feeling to witness two people choosing to spend forever together!

Now picture these moments 5 years from now. How do you see them? Full of love, laughter, and MAGIC! How will you feel about these precious once in a lifetime heirlooms. I am here to help you capture your memories for you to share & reflect the story of your wedding day for years to come.

Hey, friend!
—I'm Bethany.

Real, True, Love

My photography journey began when I was 16 years old! My mentors coached me through the wedding process at an early age & I could not be more grateful for the leg up it gave me in the photography industry.

Story time: My very first wedding was an absolute disaster! It began with the bride getting a black eye from the groom's brother. Crazy story. BUT from the moment I got to pick up a camera and feel all the love in the air around me, I knew this was the career for me! As a Las Vegas photographer I have many more crazy stories to tell but I did not fall in love because of the crazy moments. I feel in love because I absolutely enjoy being behind a camera and being there for my couples on their wedding day.

When I think about how crazy blessed I am to have the career I do, I find myself in awe of the mere fact that I get to capture the most important and special day in people's lives! I get to deliver art for them to love forever. Someday, years down the line they will see their wedding photos, all the love & joy they felt that day will come flooding back to them and hopefully fill their eyes with tears and their hearts with happiness.

I choose weddings not for the true joy of it all but, because I love talking to people and being there for the milestones of their lives.

For example, one of my oldest clients, Katie & I met to take headshots for her business, then again to capture her boyfriend and his son for family photos, then Chris (her boyfriend) & I planned the proposal, from there we captured moments of Katie & Chris's engagement session, incredible wedding, more family photos, and now new baby photos! This relationship is my greatest accomplishment as a photographer because for the rest of their lives I will continue to capture their story. One day when their little boy has grown, I will remind him of the Minecraft toys I brought for him to his parents' wedding & we will have a good laugh. That is the reason I love what I do!

“Bethany is such a ray of light. From the moment we met her, she instantly became our friend.”

My Approach

Here is a bit about the approach that I take, and the experience you're about to have with me...

Your time with me should feel like you are hanging out with one of your best friends, & your biggest cheer leader! Let's take a less traditional approach, less cookie cutter and more personal. Before your big day I want to hear all about your photography dreams & how the two of you met, & of course how he popped the big question! During your big day I want to collaborate with you on your ideas!

My favorite style is candid all the way! Whether its you two laughing, running off in the distance, an unprompted kiss on the forehead, of just enjoying a moment together. If something catches my eye I'll be sure to let you know and tell you what my vision is for a posed photo. Meaning a still shot. Occasionally, I'll show you a sneak peek because I just can't help showing you how good you guys look! Be prepared sometimes when I get what we photographers call "the money shot" I'll squeak a little "eeeeppppp!" and do a small happy dance! My photography style dances back and forth between candid & posed, color & B&W, crisp & a touch of grain for the cinematic look. It's a little bit of everything.

What it looks like to have me as your photographer: I help with emergency dress alterations, pinning 13+ boutonnieres, I am a master dress fluffer, I scan all the groomsmen for items in the pockets that need to be moved, I will have safety pins to put you back together, I will bring you food if your starving, and a drink if you are ready to party, I will coach you through your cake cutting & bouquet toss so you don't get a double chin. I will help your guests dance to the wobble if they look confused. I will remember your parent's names, so they don't forget how special they are to you. I will double as your wedding planner. I am more than just your photographer.

Bethany is such a ray of light. From the moment we met her, she instantly became our friend. The lightheartedness of her personality & the way she made us feel so comfortable while shooting was remarkable.
