Photography

Pricing & Info Guide

2023 - 2024

Its a profound feeling to witness little people grown into big people!

Take a moment to picture the upcoming milestones in your child's life, their first steps, their first words, their first day at school. Now picture these moments 5 years from now. How do you see them? Full of love, laughter, and MAGIC! How will you feel about these precious once in a lifetime heirlooms. I am here the help you capture your memories for you to share & reflect on your story for years to come.

Hey, friend!
—I'm Bethany.

Real, True, Love

My photography journey began when I was 16 years old! My mentors coached me through the wedding process at an early age & I could not be more grateful for the leg up it gave me in the photography industry.

When I think about how crazy blessed I am to have the career I do, I find myself in awe of the mere fact that I get to capture the most important and special day in people's lives! I get to deliver art for them to love forever. Someday, years down the line they will see their wedding photos, all the love & joy they felt that day will come flooding back to them and hopefully fill their eyes with tears and their hearts with happiness.

I choose my job not for the true joy of it all but, because I love talking to people and being there for the milestones of their lives.

For example, one of my oldest clients, Katie & I met to take headshots for her business, then again to capture her boyfriend and his son for family photos, then Chris (her boyfriend) & I planned the proposal, from there we captured moments of Katie & Chris's engagement session, incredible wedding, more family photos, and now new baby photos! This relationship is my greatest accomplishment as a photographer because for the rest of their lives I will continue to capture their story. One day when their little boy has grown, I will remind him of the Minecraft toys I brought for him to his parents' wedding & we will have a good laugh. That is the reason I love what I do!

“Bethany is such a ray of light. From the moment we met her, she instantly became our friend.”

My Approach

Here is a bit about the approach that I take, and the experience you're about to have with me...

Your time with me should feel like you are hanging out with one of your best friends, & your biggest cheer leader! Let's take a less traditional approach, less cookie cutter and more personal. Before your big day I want to hear all about your photography dreams & how the two of you met, & of course how he popped the big question! During your big day I want to collaborate with you on your ideas!

My favorite style is candid all the way! Whether its you two laughing, running off in the distance, an unprompted kiss on the forehead, of just enjoying a moment together. If something catches my eye I'll be sure to let you know and tell you what my vision is for a posed photo. Meaning a still shot. Occasionally, I'll show you a sneak peek because I just can't help showing you how good you guys look! Be prepared sometimes when I get what we photographers call "the money shot" I'll squeak a little "eeeeppppp!" and do a small happy dance! My photography style dances back and forth between candid & posed, color & B&W, crisp & a touch of grain for the cinematic look. It's a little bit of everything.

What it looks like to have me as your photographer: I will play with your kids that entire session and always have fun way to capture photos instead of standing still and trying to pose still. I will encourage laughter and games, and I will never tell you little one to smile. Rather Ill find ways to make them smile. I want raw moments of your children's childhood so you can remember them as they were in their element

Kind Words

Bethany is such a ray of light. From the moment we met her, she instantly became our friend. The lightheartedness of her personality & the way she made us feel so comfortable while shooting was remarkable. She truly is a chameleon and I can tell that she formulates each photo based on who she is shooting. We can not thank her enough for capturing our special moment and more importantly for becoming a life long friend. If you're thinking of booking Bethany, don't hesitate! Seriously!!!
